

IRANIAN AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION - NEW YORK CHAPTER CALL FOR SPONSORS FOR 2019 NOWRUZ DINNER

On Sunday, April 28, 2019, the New York Chapter of the Iranian American Bar Association (IABA-NY) will host its ninth annual gala event to celebrate Nowruz, the Persian New Year, with a gathering of attorneys, professionals, and prominent members of the Iranian American community. This year, the Nowruz Dinner will take place at the elegant and historic ballroom at the New York County Lawyers Association in downtown Manhattan. The event will feature authentic Persian cuisine, traditional Persian New Year decorations, and a keynote speech from Fatemeh Ziai, Chief of Staff of the Department of Peacekeeping Operations and the Department of Field Support at the United Nations. Ms. Ziai previously served as Chief of Staff to the UN Deputy Secretary-General, was a member of the UN team at the Bonn Peace Talks and helped to set up the UN mission that followed in Afghanistan, and was a legal advisor to the UN Mission in Bosnia and Herzegovina.

IABA-NY is extending businesses the opportunity to promote their services to our members, while showing their support for the Iranian American community, by becoming a sponsor of this year's Nowruz Dinner.

Sponsors are prominently featured in our invitations and marketing materials for the event and are recognized at the event itself. Sponsors will have the opportunity to promote their companies to hundreds of attorneys and other members of the Iranian American community and to gain access to a unique network of attorneys and professionals, as well as support cross-cultural endeavors and understanding at a critical time for Iranian-American relations.
